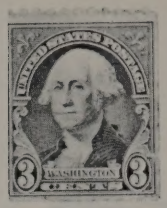
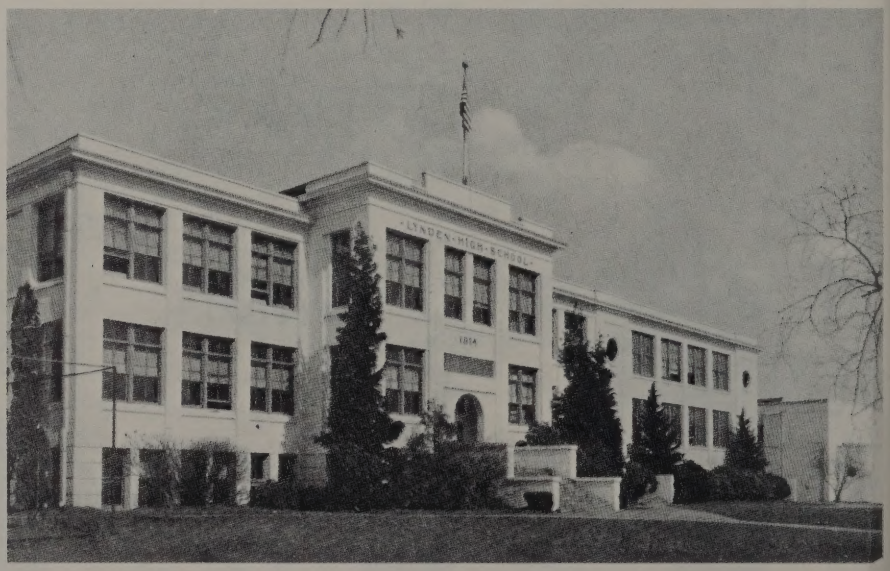
RIP ROARING

THAT WAS THEN,



Rip off? Right now if you were to go to a movie and buy a hamburger it would cost $5.39. That doesn't include another 83¢ a gallon for gas. Have you ever wondered what prices used to be like?

"Teenagers today don't scare me as much as they used to."
. . . Judy Knudsen



In 1930 two people could go to a movie for a total of 27¢. Hamburgers were 10¢, and imagine how far you could go with gas prices being only 15¢ a gallon. Prices weren't the only changes. Lynden's school colors were originally red and white. The boy's basketball uniforms, however, were green and gold because Whatcom School District was also red and white. Around the year 1930, the students petitioned to change the colors permanently. The petition passed and Lynden has been green and gold ever since.

THIS IS NOW!

PART-TIME

Torn between a job and school activities? You are not alone. A little more than half of all U.S. teenagers work nationwide. Most like their jobs and are willing to sacrifice sports, basketball games, and school dances. Reasons for holding a job during school vary from person to person. Elicia Bouker says it's the experience she wants. The main reason, however, is money. Uses for money are unlimited. A car is usually a first expense. It can take a big chunk out of savings but is well worth it. Gas, clothes, and weekend entertainment are just a couple of the monthly expenses. If any money is left over it is saved. A lot of students are saving money for college. Of course finding the time for homework is hard. In order to maintain grades, some students put in very late nights. It is all a matter of priorities.

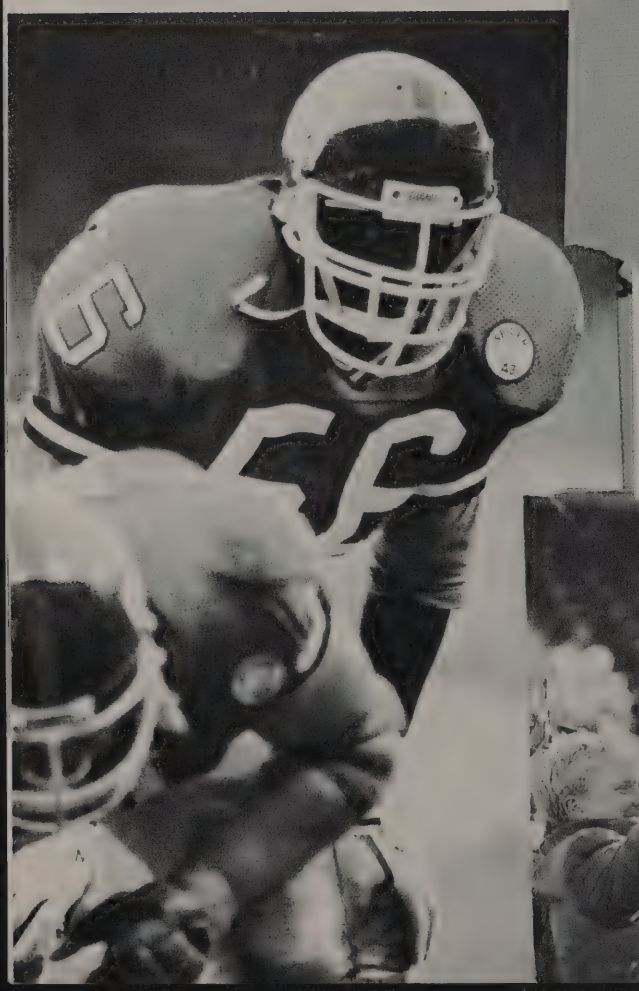
NEWS FLASH

Hope was ignited in the hearts of Americans when Mikhail Gorbachev and President Regan met in Iceland to discuss arms limitations. The talks, unfortuantely, resulted in a stalemate with no agreement reached.

Super Bowl XXI found the New York Giants to be the superior team of the '86-'87 season. The Giants' defense smothered the arm of Denver quarterback, John Elway, limiting his air attack to one touchdown. The final score showed an impressive 39-20 victory for the Giants. Phil Simms, the Giant quarterback, was named MVP of the game.



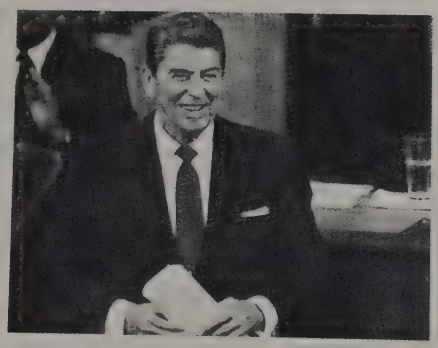
After the disasterous sinking of the U.S.S. Titanic so many years ago, it was finally rediscovered and located. Many oceanographers from around the world got together and dove many feet with a specially-designed submarine to take pictures of this historic ship.

'86-'87

On July 4, 1986, the restored Statue of Liberty was unveiled in a firework-filled glaze of glory. After millions of dollars and countless hours of labor, Old Glory once again stood proud in New York Harbor, her message of freedom still strong.

Initiation of the 3-point shot in college basketball this year resulted in a flood of controversy. Although most people agreed that it was a good thing, the majority of coaches felt that the 3-pt. line was marked too close to the basket.

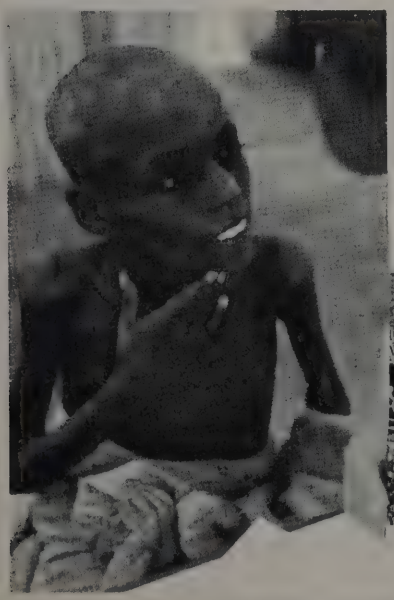
Dennis Connor and the rest of the crew of the San Diego-based ship, Stars and Stripes, won the 1987 America's Cup. The Americans beat the Australian Kukaberry III in four races—a clean sweep.



Ronald Reagan found hard times at the end of 1986 with the Iranian Arms Scandal. For perhaps the first time during his presidency, Reagan's power and authority was questioned, and the American public felt uncertain about his role in the White House.

Terry Waite enters negotiations for American hostages, putting his own life very much at risk.

Despite the millions of dollars raised through the "Live Aid" concerts this year, Ethiopians continued to starve due to the terrible drought. How much money will it take to save them?



HIGH-LIGHTS

Once every 75 years, Halley's Comet makes its way through the galaxy. In 1986, the comet travelled through the Mikly Way, delighting millions of comet-watchers worldwide with its show of cosmic brilliance.

Dating in the '80s is an interesting experience. Since everything seems to cost so much nowadays, couples require ingenuity and creativity to have a good time. Movies are still the date of choice, but movie viewing has taken on new dimensions. Rental movies are gaining popularity, as couples find it more relaxing to spend quiet time at home together watching their favorites. Regardless of what they do, couples today still find dating an exciting and fun experience.

Long hours in the lunch line results in french fries for certain senior boys. John "The French Fry Man" Mallow is the best fry-getter in the whole school. Whenever Cory or David asks John to get fries, he gladly gets them. After only minutes of waiting, out comes John through the lunch line with a big smile on his face and a tray full of fries.

"Laurinda, Laurinda," cries DV. "We need you to run the scoreclock at the C game today.

"O.K., Mr. De Valois," she says. Boy, we here at the high school didn't think LHS would be the same when Randy Schoulten left, but his shoes are now filled by younger sister, Laurinda. She has carried on the Schoulten tradition quite well.

Sharing gossip

Friend, as defined by the dictionary, is a person whom one knows, likes, and trusts. A friend is someone who accepts us as we are, overlooks our faults, and cares for us no matter what. Friends, whether boys or girls, are in much demand, especially during school. We need someone to share special moments, whether is is about that great football pass or that guy who smiles at you during lunch. At Lynden High, everyone is very friendly. They are willing to listen, to share a laugh, or maybe stand in the lunchline with you. A friend can always be counted on.

Lisa and Amy are thrilled about next semester's classes

Looking forward to graduation helped keep up the spirits of the senior class. After a lifetime of school, the end of the road was in sight, and anticipation built throughout the year. Various activities helped add interest to the final year, and the senior's involvement in these activities gave them extra excitement. Underclassmen had exemplary role models to follow, as the senior's enthusiasm and good nature were commendable. The senior officers, led by President Bob Lorence, helped make the year a prosperous one for the senior class.

Money Was The Main Ambition

In the minds of Jeff, Kristi, Matti, and Jon. Starting with a whopping $500 at the beginning of the year, they had accumulated $1300 by the time December rolled around. With such activities as a lasagna feed, a couple of dances, and a fun-filled carwash during the summer, (remember the key, Troy?) they improved their financial status tremendously. This class demonstrates how working together pays off.

was a common adjective used by the incoming freshmen at the beginning of the year. The first day of school certainly had its downfalls-making sure you sat in the right spot during the assembly, walking through the crowded halls, avoiding seniors, and trying to find the right classrooms. But then the fun started. To earn money for their graduation, they sold lollipops and posters. With the help of the upperclassmen, the freshmen participated in activities such as intramural sports and doing the Hokey Pokey.

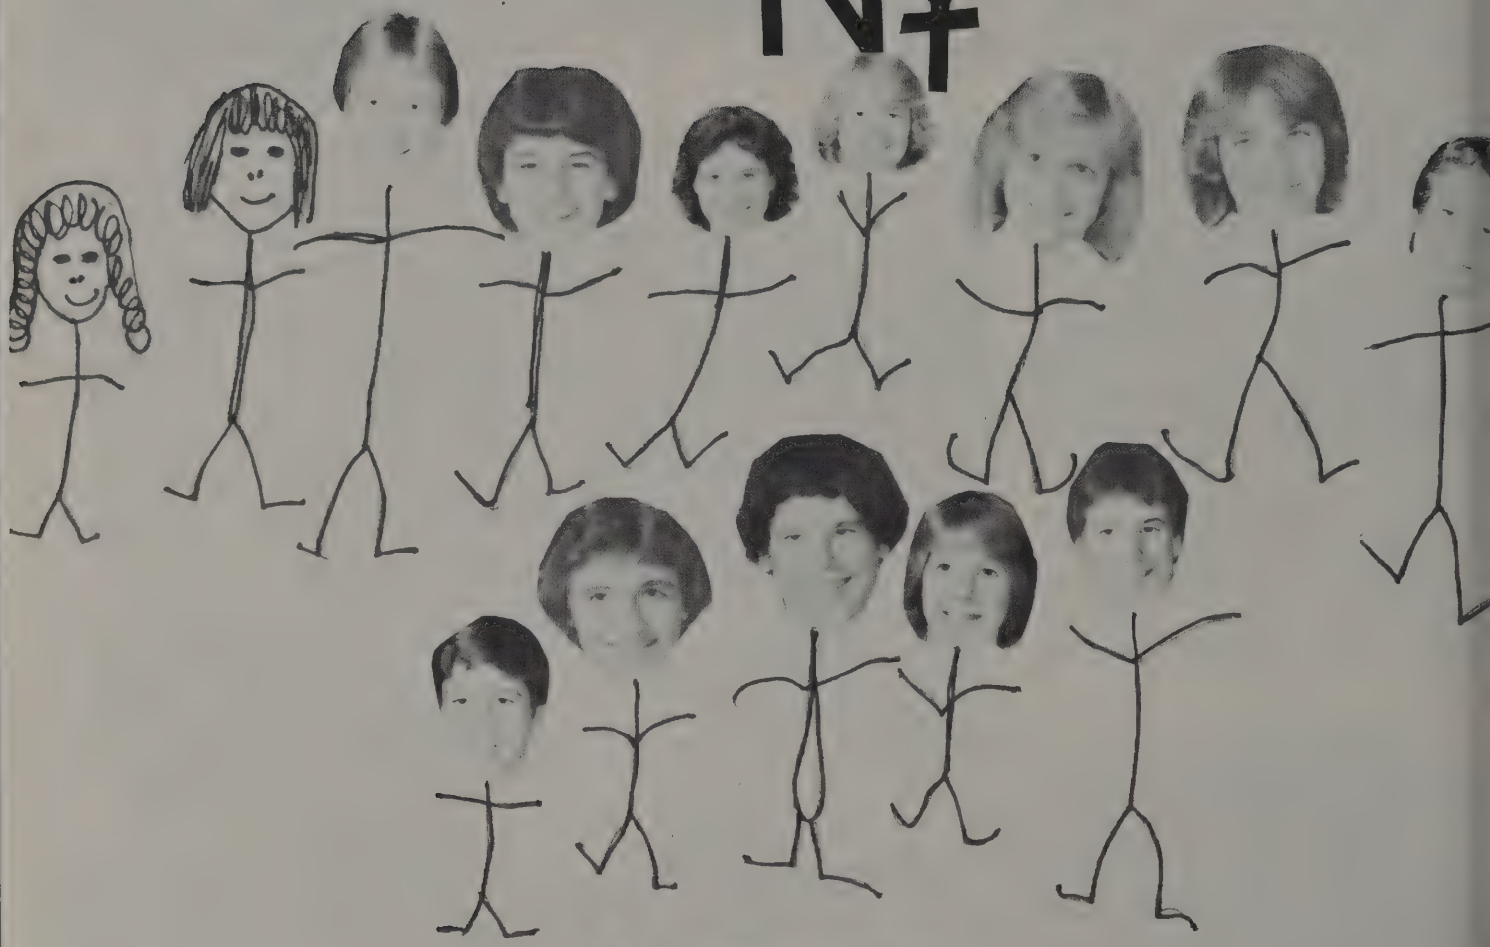
STUDENT COUNCIL



ASB

The student council consists of ASB officers and representatives from each class. These students are responsible for many of the changes around the school, and they function as the link between students and administrators. They can be proud of their accomplishments and their leadership roles.

Student Council Members: Wendy Cowell, Laura Assink, Troy Strong, Cindy Bedlington, Carol Hubbard, Kim Scheffer, Shirley Boschma, Chrystina Johnson, Dean Kingma. ASB officers: Asst. Treasurer Arnold Brickbealer, Vice-president Diana Buys, President Cory White, Treasurer Krishelle Bovenkamp, and Secretary Duane Francisco.

The Future Business Leaders of America contributed and volunteered their valuable time at football games collecting the tickets and at basketball games in the concession stand selling all sorts of goodies to hungry and demanding fans. Their reward for this tedious work was a dinner at R B McGregor's in April, which was very enjoyable. This year's officers were Pres. Teresa Garcia, V.P. Michele Eddy, Treas. Karla DeBondt, and Sec. Shirley Boschma.

The officers of this year's FHA are Pres. Karla DeBondt, V.P. Maria Tobey, Sec. Holly MacPhee, and Treas. Cindy Bedlington. This year the group visited the Children's Orthopedic Hospital in Seattle for a pleasant tour of the facilities and an intriguing two hour seminar on birth defects. Their concern for people didn't stop there. They eagerly sold candy bars to raise money for the March of Dimes. Thank you FHA for showing us your enthusiasm by helping others.

The FFA club, headed by Mr. Aultman, has been very active this year with projects such as the sale of poinsettias at Christmas, roses and balloons on Valentine's day and Easter lilies at Easter. Officers of FFA are Pres. Ken Parriera, V.P. Neal Velthuizen, Sec. Kelly Casey, and Treas. Lisa Fisher. Lisa & Kelly with two other FFA members, Duane Vis and Sheri Everlund, did a radio spot for safety week during the fall. It promoted farm safety features and procedures to follow. These activities all show that the FFA is a dedicated group.

This was the first year Lynden High School entered the state wide Future Problem Solving competition. Representing Lynden's challenge Program, LeeAnn Posthumus, Lorri McMillen, Theresa Otter, and Lisa Leslie placed 4th in the state, just one place out of the finals at Fort Warden. To add to their success, LeeAnn Placed 3rd in the scenerio writing portion of the competition. Her work was advanced to national competition.

TORCH CLUB

Torch Club is composed of sophomores, juniors, and seniors who have maintained a 3.5 cumulative grade point average. This years group stands at thirty nine members which is more than any other in recent memory. Fifteen seniors will graduate with Torch Club honors and wear honor cords. The annual Torch Club trip this year took them to the Seattle Aquarium, the Omnidome Theater, and Pike Place Market. Fund raising through candy sales paid for the trip. To wrap up the year as usual the Lynden Kiwanis treated the seniors to an awards banquet where each member received an impressive certificate to reward four years of outstanding effort.

Approximately once or twice a week, three men, Jeff Vander Yacht, Cory White, and Russ Martin, put up one of the creative readerboard signs which we dearly loved. They went out in the rain, sleet, snow, and 100 mph winds just so that each week we could be amused with their sayings such as the time that they informed us that there was only 92 shopping days till Christmas. Another good one was when they put up about the protest update, 2 games for the price of one. I think that these fine men deserved much more respect than they got.

Mira and Fred make friends on the cruise around Seattle

International Club students provide a support and friendship group for our exchange students. The main goal of the club is to foster international understanding on a personal level. Activities include fund-raising and social events involving exchange students.

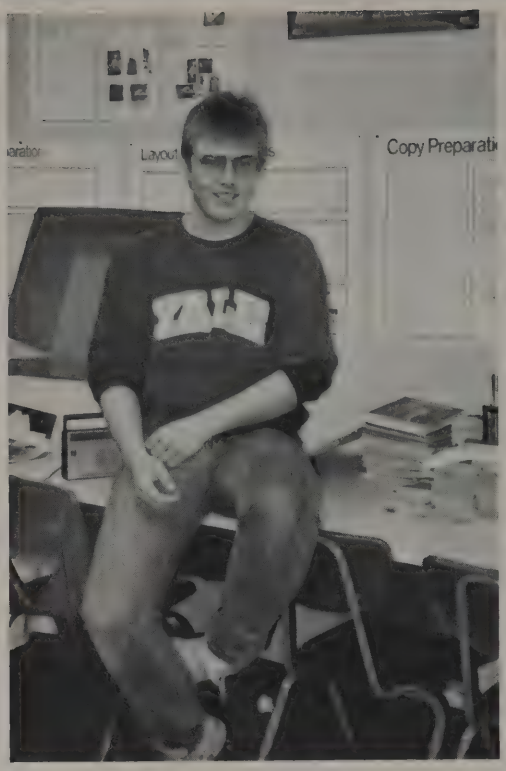
I can't believe these prices!

As soon as Mrs. Noe figures out where we are, we can get going.

Club ¢ Trip

This year the club went to Seattle to tour the Seattle waterfront on a guided boat tour. We also went to Pike's Place Market. Several exchange students attending schools in Whatcom County joined us for a beautiful day in Seattle.

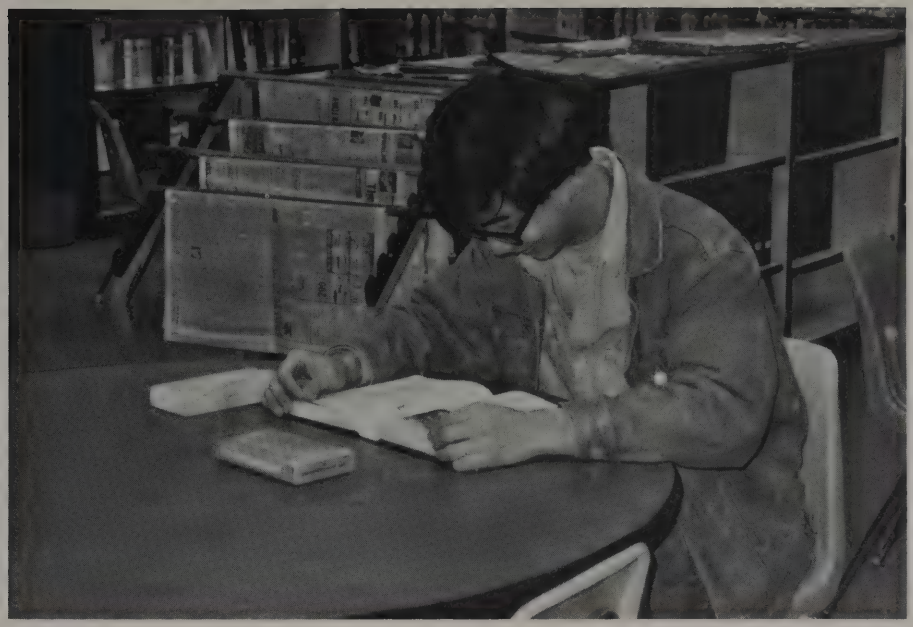
Our first view of the new speed zones.



My name is Leo Thonesen. I'm 19 years old. I was sent as exchange student from Denmark by the International Rotary Organization. I like the area around Lynden, even though not much is happening. Lynden High School is very modern school, and this year has been the best experience of my life.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE

I'm 17 years old exchange student Mira Tapper from Finland, who is a senior here at Lynden High School. In Finland I would be a junior because we had to go 14 years school and I'm going to be still a junior when I will go back. They don't count this year in my home country. Periods are here longer. In Finland periods are 45 minutes break instead like you have 60 minute periods and 5 minute break. First days it was like oh my gosh where is the next classroom, do I find it on time. Then came time that I need to go also to the restroom. How you can do all those things in five minutes especially when the locker combination isn't working. Somehow I have learn to do all those things in five minutes even use lockers. The lockers are really different because we don't have them. After all I can say school here is sure different, interesting, and much more easier than in Finland.



There are many different points between Japan and U.S. Almost all Japanese students go to studying school and cram school. Cram school isn't real school. We also learn from school, but I can tell it looks learn from cram school and have tests at school. Some kindergartens, primary school, and junior high school have entrance exam. My friend thought government decide my wife. Don't forget Japan is democracy. Japan is communicating with many countries so we can listen to the same song. Sometime also we can watch some American shows. Now Japanese teenager are called new type. Communication is changing Japanese. For 40 years after WWII, Japan have developed, It still continued. I hope many people come to Japan, because I want you to know my country.

Frederique Ermatinger from Switzerland. For all the students at Lynden High school, thanks for the memories, the new experience and friends. I could write so much about my past in the U.S., that I would take all the room in the annual. A big bravo for all the school teams, where I spent some of my more memorful times. Sports are so much sociable here. Thank you to the teachers who always were there to help me or to share nice things about my country and theirs. I was so happy to have friends who had always enough patient to try to understand me and help me to progress in my English. It was nice to always find people who would give you a ride home or somewhere else when you needed. One thing is sure is that I will never forget you, because you are all great people. Lot of love from the Swiss Miss Fred.

I'm Morten Arp from Denmark, and this year I have been a senior at Lynden High. Denmark is very different from U.S.A. especially when talking about the difference in high schools. I graduated last year after tenth grade, and when I'm through this year of American high school, I'll continue with two or three years of trade school. I've really enjoyed this year, everybody has been very nice and hospitable. I think Lynden High is a really nice high school and I'll never forget this year as a exchange student at Lynden High.

We leave all books in our lockers,

We'd rather be lunch-time-talkers,
than students ready to be taught.

We wait in line,

The food is fine,
but we really come to be with the bunch.

Spirit

HYPERACTIVE was the theme of spirit week. The week started out with hall decorating on Monday night, which resulted in another 1st place for the junior class. Seniors took second and the sophomores and freshmen fell to 3rd and 4th respectively. Hyperactive spirit showed when students dressed up for the dress-up days. Monday was Bedtime day, Tuesday was Punk day, Wednesday was Winter day, Thursday was Western day, and Friday was color day. The cheerleaders did a dance to the song "Hyperactive", which they performed at the game against Blaine. Although Blaine won 54-53, everyone still had a great and hyperactive week.

Defense was definitely Lynden's strength. The volleyball team finished the season second place in the league with 8 wins and 2 losses. The best match of the season was played at home with Nooksack. It took five long games, ending in a score of 6-15, 15-13, 6-15, 16-14, 16-14 Lynden. The Lions entered the district tournament optimistically. After winning the first two matches, Lynden lost to South Whidbey. The fourth and final match was against the league rival Nooksack. Nooksack won and went on to win the state tournament. Next year's volleyball team is going to be worth watching. Good Luck!

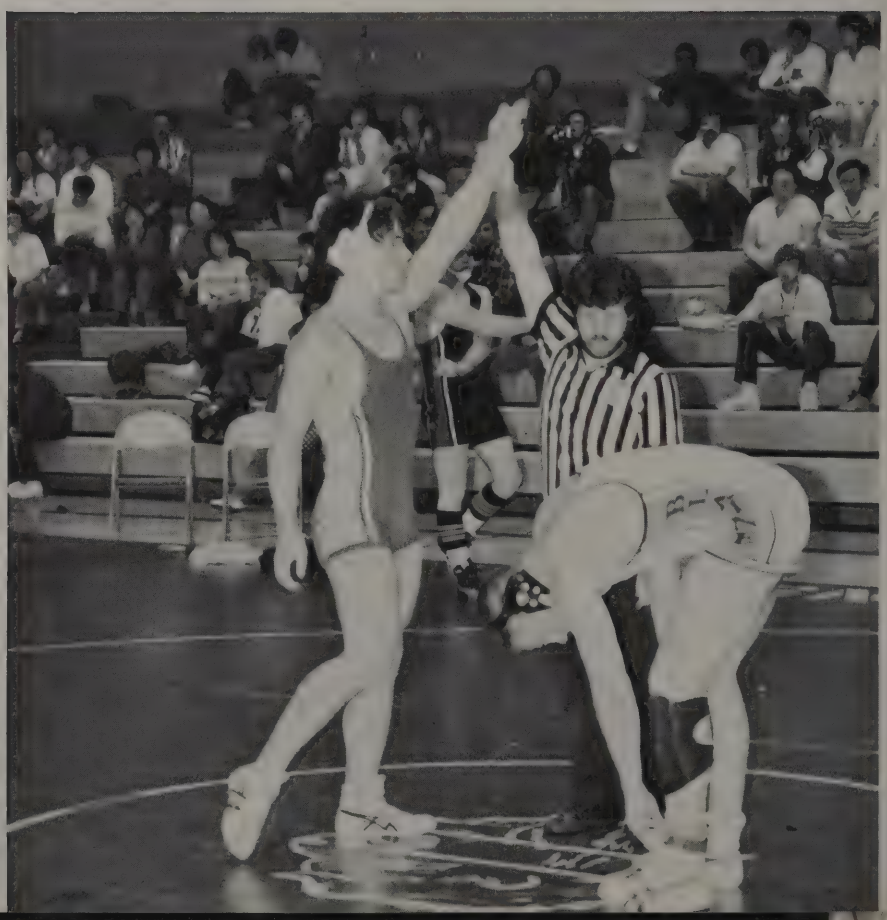
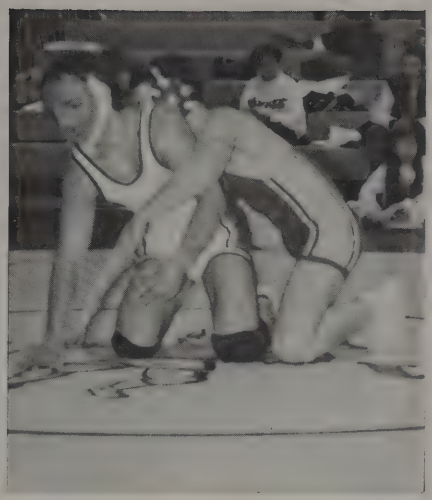
Barrie thinks he is the Statue of Liberty.





This past season was an excellent one for wrestling. The team took fourth place in the league and three wrestlers went to state, two as participants, and one as an alternate. For the first time, four wrestlers from LCHS wrestled for the Lions. The season started rather slowly, but picked up momentum with the tournaments at Willipa Valley, Port Townsend, and Mount Baker.

These tournaments allowed the team to excell and have a lot of fun. Team honors went to Tim DenBleyker (inspirational), Troy Dykstra (most improved), and Barrie Salmonson (outstanding wrestler). The captains this year were Bobby Lorence and Tim Caldwell.

Our baseball team has once again given Lynden High a good name with a record of 12 and 8 and going to district for a 3rd year in a row. Highlights of the season include a grand slam by Scott Lee at NV, Joel stealing home to beat Mt. Baker, and uncountable homeruns by all players. Thanks guys for a thrilling season!

To your mark, set, GO! The runners are off at the sound of the gun. A race as short as the 200 meter takes seconds to finish, but to a runner it seems a lot longer. Track is an individual sport. Instead of an opponent, a runner competes against the clock. Field events are just as tense, but are at a slower pace. Track is unique because the outcome does not directly depend on the opponent. Satisfaction comes from bettering your own personal record. Kim Smith and Tracy Shine both broke school records this year-Kim ran the 3200 meter in 12:17 and Tracy jumped 5'½" in the high jump.

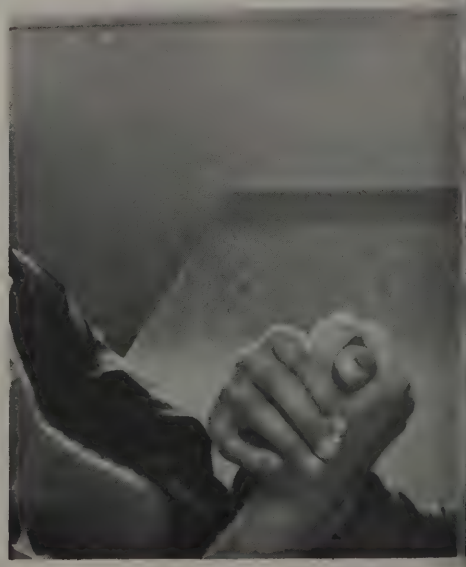
Senior Field Trip

The Senior Trip this year was to Moran State Park on Orcas Island. It was a fun-filled day that carried out the tradition of hamburgers and getting wet. Starting with Mr. Kirby, everyone was thrown into the lake, including Pam Bright. Roger and Joel dared to jump off cliffs—others just jumped off bridges. Bobby entertained people on the ferry with card tricks. The day ended with a food fight on the bus. Hopefully, next year's seniors will have as much fun.

One down; forty-two more to go!

The highlight of the trip-Kirby emerging from his swim.



Volleyball was the game of the day.

Maria, I'll give you half an hour to quit that!

Where did everyone go?

Quick! Someone push him overboard.

Go away, we want to be alone!

Val & Kelly sing "Friends"

As we reach out our hand
The diploma we grasp,
While we think of the memories
Of the years in the past.

Tears fill our eyes
Because it's all gone,
We're starting a new life,
We have to move on.

We hope friends keep in touch,
As the years pass us by,
Although it hurts inside
We'll try not to cry.

We think of kindergarten
And our first day.

Now we've reached the end
We're going away.

How do you say good-by
To friends who mean so much?

Will there be time
To sincerely keep in touch?

You'll always have the memories
Of your school years from day one,
Don't think of school as ending
Think a new life has begun.

School spirit is not a characteristic that can be turned off and on at the will of students or faculty. School spirit is also not just reserved for extra curricular activities, but pervades the entire offerings and activities of a student body. School spirit has been the trademark of Lynden High for many years and has contributed enormously to our success.
